NEW QUESTION: 1
An organization plans to outsource its customer relationship management (CRM) to a third-party service provider. Which of the following should the organization do FIRST?
A. Perform a security assessment to detect security vulnerabilities.
B. Request that the third-party provider perform background checks on their employees.
C. Audit the third-party provider to evaluate their security controls.
D. Perform an internal risk assessment to determine needed controls.
Answer: D
Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:
Explanation:
An internal risk assessment should be performed to identify the risk and determine needed controls. A background check should be a standard requirement for the service provider. Audit objectives should be determined from the risk assessment results. Security assessment does not cover the operational risks.

NEW QUESTION: 4
Your customer's project managers are at a very low level of skill/maturity. Your scope of work includes the creation and management of schedule standards, usage of work products and documents, and schedule-variance tracking to improve estimation processes. Work out of scope includes risk and issue management. You have decided to modify a user-interface view for the project managers.
Where do you remove access to risk and issue management?
A. Remove Risk and Issues licenses.
B. Remove Risk and Issues from the Protects section.
C. Remove Risk and Issues from the global security profile.
D. Remove the Risks and Issues portlets from dashboards.

Answer: D
Explanation:
We remove these two specific portlets (Risk, Issues) for the Dashboards which are used by the Project Managers.
Note:
*Dashboards are created with up to 12 windows of data called Portlets
*Dashboards build upon those analysis tools and present project and portfolio information in a way that is easy to set up and use. These dashboards can be customized and assigned so that specific users or groups of users can see the same information when they log into the system. Dashboards can be configured to suit individual needs or literally get everyone on the same page.
